NOTES:

Code of Ethics

for BOMA/Suburban Chicago Members

BOMA/Suburban Chicago is committed to complying with all applicable laws and regulations governing not-for-profit corporations and associations and aspires to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.

- Professional behavior is expected at all BOMA functions.
- BOMA/Suburban Chicago members conduct business with respect, integrity and professional courtesy.
- Information provided to BOMA and its members shall be truthful. Dishonest, fraudulent or illegal information or conduct is deemed unacceptable.
- BOMA members maintain as confidential any legitimate business or association information provided in confidence until and unless given permission to disclose it by the source or for the length of time that confidentiality is legally required.
- Recognizing that the more you contribute to the association, the more you benefit from the association, all BOMA members are pledged to participate in and support the activities of the organization.
- BOMA/Suburban Chicago functions are relationship-building and educational opportunities. Solicitation of business should take place outside of BOMA functions.
- BOMA Associates are requested to respect the parameters of their categories.
- As the behavior of each BOMA member reflects upon all BOMA members, BOMA is a self-policing group in regard to decorum at BOMA functions. Questionable behavior will be brought to the attention of the Board of Directors who shall have the option to put a member on notice, on probation, or, ultimately, to expel a member.
